Re: Yang v. Garland, et al., No. 21 Civ. 3480 (RA)

Dear Judge Abrams:

This Office represents the government in this action in which the plaintiff seeks an order compelling U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (“USCIS”) to adjudicate her Application to Register Permanent Residence or to Adjust Status (Form I-485). On behalf of the government, I write respectfully to request an on-consent extension of time of forty-five days to respond to the complaint (i.e., from July 26 to September 9, 2021). I also respectfully request that the initial conference presently scheduled for August 13, 2021, be adjourned to the week of September 20, 2021 or thereafter.

The extension is respectfully requested in connection with USCIS’s Request for Evidence relating to the Form I-485. Although the response to the RFE is not due until August 16, 2021, the government understands that the plaintiff intends to respond by July 30. USCIS may be able to proceed to take adjudicative action within the requested extended period, which potentially would render this action moot. This is the government’s second request for an extension of the deadline to respond to the complaint and to adjourn the initial conference.¹ Plaintiff’s counsel consents to these requests.

I thank the Court for its consideration of this letter.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDREY STRAUSS
United States Attorney

¹ On May 21, 2021, the government requested an extension of its time to respond to the complaint and an adjournment of the initial conference in light of USCIS’s issuance of the RFE. See ECF No. 7. The Court granted the requests. See ECF No. 8.
